Subject: Security Cover Certificate of REC Ltd as at June 30, 2026

This certificate is issued based on and in reliance upon the Security Cover Certificate dated July 25, 2026 issued by M/s Kailash Chand Jain & Co., Chartered Accountants and M/s SCV & Co. LLP, Chartered Accountants, the Statutory Auditors of the Company, and the financial statements/records examined by them. We have not performed any independent verification of the underlying books of account, records, or valuations relied upon by the Statutory Auditors, and our certificate is limited to the extent of reliance placed on their certification.

Responsibility for the accuracy of the underlying figures rests with the management/statutory auditor, and that the issuing CA's role is limited to compiling/presenting the certificate based on that reliance and books of accounts extracts and unaudited results published by the company as we are not re-auditing it.

Management has represented that the Ind AS value of the security cover has been arrived at by:

- adding the interest accrued (but not due) on the underlying assets/instruments to the IGAAP value; and
- reducing the Ind AS adjustment amount (e.g., fair valuation, EIR/amortization, or other Ind AS transition adjustments, as applicable) from the IGAAP value.

Accordingly, the difference between the amount outstanding (as per IGAAP) and the security cover (as per Ind AS) is on account of this valuation methodology difference between the two frameworks, and not on account of any shortfall in the underlying security.

This explanation has been provided by the management, and we have relied upon the same without independent verification as Ind AS adjustment computation was not available to us for verification.

Based on examination of extracts of borrowing schedule and Security Cover Certificate issued by statutory auditor and other piece of records/documents of REC Limited, we hereby certify that;
